

Week 6

Text: Colossians 4:2–18

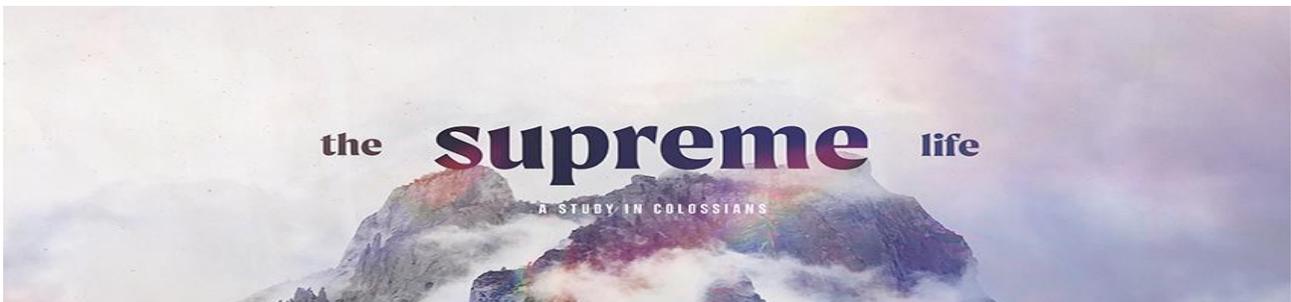

Topic(s): Prayer, Testimony

Big Idea of the Message: Paul closes his letter with the reminder to be a person who prays and commends fellow believers.

Application Point: Prayer is vital to the believer's life, and our life practices testify to many people—which is why Paul mentions others in closing and their impact on Paul and their influence in the world.

Discussion Questions:

- Of the things a believer is to do, seen in Colossians 4:2–6 which one poses the biggest challenge to you?
- Is there a person you could befriend and either encourage as a Christian or possibly help them become a believer?
- If you were part of the church at Colossae, how would Paul have written about you as he closed his letter to the Colossians?
- What is a positive, impactful lesson you have experienced or learned from this series?

Week 6

Text: Colossians 4:2–18

Topic(s): Prayer, Testimony

Big Idea of the Message: Paul closes his letter with the reminder to be a person who prays and commends fellow believers.

Application Point: Prayer is vital to the believer's life, and our life practices testify to many people—which is why Paul mentions others in closing and their impact on Paul and their influence in the world.

Discussion Questions:

- Of the things a believer is to do, seen in Colossians 4:2–6 which one poses the biggest challenge to you?
- Is there a person you could befriend and either encourage as a Christian or possibly help them become a believer?
- If you were part of the church at Colossae, how would Paul have written about you as he closed his letter to the Colossians?
- What is a positive, impactful lesson you have experienced or learned from this series?