

Week 3

Text: John 15:13–15, 27

Topic(s): Friendships, Welcoming

Big Idea of the Message: A friend's faults do not disqualify them from the investment of friendship.

Application Point: Being sent ones, our mission should be to make more disciples, which in turn requires us to make new friends.

Discussion Questions:

- Why did Jesus change what he called the people who followed him closely from servants to friends?
- If you are married, why did you choose the people you included in your bridal party? If you were planning your imaginary wedding right now, who would you ask to stand up with you? Why?
- What is one thing we can change (as individuals) to be more about the Father's business?
- Are there people in your life whose faults prevent you from investing in them? How could you invest in and influence them with the love of Jesus?

Week 3

Text: John 15:13–15, 27

Topic(s): Friendships, Welcoming

Big Idea of the Message: A friend's faults do not disqualify them from the investment of friendship.

Application Point: Being sent ones, our mission should be to make more disciples, which in turn requires us to make new friends.

Discussion Questions:

- Why did Jesus change what he called the people who followed him closely from servants to friends?
- If you are married, why did you choose the people you included in your bridal party? If you were planning your imaginary wedding right now, who would you ask to stand up with you? Why?
- What is one thing we can change (as individuals) to be more about the Father's business?
- Are there people in your life whose faults prevent you from investing in them? How could you invest in and influence them with the love of Jesus?